We look forward to seeing you in Savannah!

You must tell us about your program! We only know what you share with us. A well-written, inclusive narrative is important. Narratives provided in the application should include safety, health, or environmental program information which provides a clear, concise overview of the organizational efforts in the improvement of the workplace or community.

This can include quantitative information as warranted, such as recordable injury multi-year data based the OSHA recordable injury rate and DART rate (Days, Away, Restrictions and Transfers).

You may also nominate a person for the Distinguished Safety Advocate Award. This is for a person whose primary responsibility is not that of a safety director or manager. It is for an employee to takes it upon himself or herself to help protect their fellow workers and the employer from injury or loss. This person must be available to attend the conference as a greater reward and to help enhance personal knowledge of procedures, best practices, etc.

Tell us why you are proud of your workplace and fellow employees! Be inclusive but please limit the application to no more than 3 pages. Excerpts will be used in conference publications. A photo will be required if your application results in an award. Photos which include people make a better impact than a photo of just a sign or building. Photo must be submitted by July 20, 2018. Please plan accordingly.
